THE DUTY OF THE BORDER SLAVE STATES.

We are in the midst of a crisis of dark and abolition fanaticism to suppose that it is brought upon us. A fanatical party in the forms of a Godless presumption and self-will POURNAL OFFICE BUILDING, GREEN STREET, BETWEEN THIRD AND POURTH.

for in advance or assumed by a responsible person in this city. This very to say, hardly justifies the hopeful opin- deem it without foar or favor.

laty of ordering a special election of Congress- resentative at Charleston:

egraphic report of the President's Proclamation has reached us. We are struck wish mingled amazement and indignation. The policy amnounced in the Proclamation descrives the management and indignation of every American transfer as you may determine to record in such manner as you may determine to record in such manner as you may determine to record in such manner as you may determine to reed condemnation of every American rained and ruinous. If Mr. Lincoln con-

the final and complete solution of all the ques- v-lved no abandonment of their pretensions. copie in all parts of the country could have follow citizens, is one of the two grand agencies sees declared, hold them as prisoners of war? SIEFE THEER MUSAETS AND THEIR FOWDER-

One thing we consider certain. If the blood. Mr. Yancey's forecast has proved parsed The gallant Anderson and his men can accomplish singly. There is now a go torth from that the will be without thought again, until their minds are fixing any renamelation of the sane and sober resolution not to take the fatal plungs. Many even of those the banner of their the sane and sober resolution in the sane and sober resolution of them to the earth.

The sane and sober resolution of them to the earth.

The sane and sober resolution of them to the earth.

The sane and sober resolution of them to the earth.

The sane and sober resolution of them to the earth.

The sane and sober resolution of them to the earth.

ABTT RESPONSIBLE-THE PROBABLE CON- moved "forward," have found out that they SEQUENCES. - As our readers know, the col. were sorely mistaken. The deliberation that tion at Charleston which we have all appre- has succeeded to precipitation is proving any- the Union party: headed took place on Friday last. The de-plorable encounter is going forward as we the leading revolutionists. The revolution is plorable encounter is going forward as we the leading revolutionists. The revolution is write. What the immediate result will be we do not venture to predict. Not unlikely the despatches on the next page will disclose it. Meanwhile, we propose very briefly to consider this unhappy event in the light of what we have heretofore steadily urged as the daty of the Control of the co

National Capital, we said:

the day preceding the collision we are now call- probably submit to the result with equal disand that the President has summoned Con- and contrary to our hops, the collision has un- earnest and enlightened friend of the Consti- proposed name is utterly obnoxious to the meet in extra session on the 4th of fortunately occurred, we shall proceed to re- tution will feel disposed to judge with a large Whig Union men of the State. He does not other office, into a violation of our allegiance ted States be enforced there; and they could The tenor of the despatches, we are does the pledge we here gave. We shall rem our paper. Yet we do not despair. We, date of Mr. Lincoln's inauguration? The an- the interpretation Mr. Buchanan gave to his. cause, forsooth, the Democratic party in the The convening of Congress in special sec- lowing official correspondence between the struction that would sow the seeds of future of the people,"-reasons, which, if they sigson imposse on the Governor of Kentucky the War Department at Montgomery and its repevil in the Constitution, the forcible expulsion nify anything, signify nothing more or

Beauregard demanded the evacuation of Fort | ing States outright. The attempt would be on this point. Our neighbor guilty hotspur. In either case, he is miserably for dispute on this point. So far at least as spread fighting. ment? Did the Government threaten to begin pose of adjusting our troubles definitively, leavcorrespondence reproduced above necessarily excludes any such conclusion. The ground of ger from President Lincoln", says Gen. B.

revolutionists and not the Government first resentative of the authority of our country. It tionists falls the responsibility of this lament. | country in the midst of unequalled perils can ution of States is the only suspire to adjust people, at a moment when the prospect of tha the Administration, and stand by it fearlessly and such will be our conduct. and his administration of disposition to disturb the existing status whilst seem to bear sufficiently in mind. The United in this natural and just repugnance we thorus Government, it "would represent the ne- the august appeal to the people was taking, -- why, States is our country; it is all the country we oughly sympathize with them. We onrelives cent, an exit, both theeretical and practi. plotters against the integrity and existence of a foreign country. Every insult offered to the and we will not be. We at first quietly ig our country wantonly assailed and shed the U. S. flag is an insult to our country—the nored the name "Union Democracy." is now placed—rosting as he is under the obli- blood of their countrymen? Why? What is country to which we all owe and all acknowl- next condemned it on manswerable grounds pation to perform impracticable duties;" and to the motive of this strange and most unnatural edge our allegiance. Every defiance harled at in respectful hut emphatic terms. We now him "make, by public act? Not the dread of subjection by force; for, the reclamation, an official exposition of the facts to say nothing of the pacific assurances of the States" is a defiance burled at our country. All Whig brethren everywhere in the State will do as it must be apparent that the cells resulting Border stand in solid phalanx between the re- against the United States are weapons taken was bad enough; but the obstinate to the authority of the United States from this volting communities and any attempt to sub- up and soldiers raised against our country. All attempt to bind it on the brows of ion is seven States of the ject them forcibly. Not the fear of compro-Union have now passed beyond the cure of mitting the supposed dignity of their position; munitions and mints and money wrenched by of the Union party is a piece of insufferable istrative expedients, it would hold for, leaving out of view the fact that the Gov- lawless violence from the United States are impudence and folly. We cannot submit to it. ment imposed on itself the same degree of property illegally wrenched from our country. interplan of adjacement, distinctly a much higher order of forbearance, the simple Every enemy of the United States is the ene- to our party had no anthority to do so and did

" "can conceive of none so simple and so tionists in forcibly breaking up the status ex- see it insulted, flouted, intimidated, robbed, action in other respects, however, was judial convention of all the States, or at least of all Why couldn't they allow Major Anderson and J. Why couldn't the still adhering to the Constitution and his familihing little command to be rescued tions of national pride and national glory and spect was foolish, and, accordingly, has been from starvation and the status to remain as it national honor as dead in our bosoms as in greeted with one universal murmur of condem the bosoms of brute beasts, that we should be nation by the major element of the party. It Kentuckians would promptly volunteer to prome with which he has no power to deal," recognize their independence? One or the graced by a foreign country? Does not the ed by us and ought to be by everybody else. sistible pressure of the Border Slaveholding Kentneky and Tennessee and Missonri and doubtless continue to apply this name to our preposition, for at anything in the shape of States, the voice of the country must have Virginia and Maryland as foreigners? Do party; but for what purpose any sincere Unionof our present embarrassments, it is obvious well. Why, instead of waiting a brief period do the people of Great Britain or Austria or We know only that the effect of such applicafor this certain and peaceful solution, and in Mexico? Do they not bring all our steamboats tion can be nothing hat evil. the absence of any physical or moral argency and flatboats to at the very first river-port avative papers are advocating this plan of which they dare avow, have they rushed to the within the limits they claim? Do they not require that the articles we send by land or Alas! the reason is but too plain. Blood, water into their realm shall psy the same duties that they exact from European nations? Do they not refuse to let European goods, ous state of affairs would be submitted to the from the outset. Precipitation is the other. convention, they would "We, who are ready," exclaimed Mr. Yancey, their domain without the payment of duties unarmed vessel to its starving garrison there , and in one of those seditions harangues with which into their treasury? the arrangements which the Government might he so long and successfully plied the Southern noke in the interim would be regarded as heart, "should more forward, and let those who your position. Who is for his country? Who cumstances the Southern army, instead of perare not ready think, and think, and think is for a foreign country? Who strikes for again. And when, finally, the vangtard the star-spangled banner? Who strikes SHALL MEET ANOTHER LEXINGTON, AND tTS against it? set do with Anderson and his men if they KRN LIBERTY, THEN, PERCHANCE, THOSE WHO he form of Julie de Mortimar "the awful circle of the holy church" to shield her from the polution of the King of France, he did not wake up a power more potent than that with which the Constitution and the Laws of the United and savior.

States have encurried and protected the domestic institutions of the South. The French conruers deferred to the power which Richelien invoked, but our Southern friends scorn and contemn the great protection which has heretofore been an ægis to them. Julie was saved, but will the institution of slavery be strengthernment, they would hardly be able to adjust Port Sumpter has increased the secession feelto him to ask tim to speak. Mr. Buchanan dition from Naw York as a "secret" one. Of take the fatal plungs. Many even of those of them to the earth.

Our neighbor of the Democrat thus co cludes a long article in defence of the nam 'Union Democracy" as a fit designation for the Government and of the secoding States blood be spilled" and held up as a libation to We prefer to say what we have to say on the redeem it. Far otherwise. "the cause of Sonthern liberty," in order that subject before it is too late to say anything. If In the Journal of the 13th of February, the those who are still loyal to their country, and we had not deemed that the matter has a sethose whose loyalty to secession is wavering in the balance, may, in a moment of sympathetic freezy, "seize their muskets and their powder-boras and rush forward and achieve another boras and rush The generation of speedy reconstitution of speedy reconstitution of speedy reconstitution in the principles and achieve another more important on hand the victory won on the figure of the work of the speedy for determination in the first of the speed o and in the Journal of last Thursday, only the day preceding the collision we are now callde deplore, we said:

The danger of a collision at Sumpter or Pickas or at both is clearly imminant. If a collision about unfortunately occur, and wa yet are not witchest been that possible the tempt to retake it; and, if the same doom should overtake Fort Pickens, the Government would probably submit to the result with equal discusable hlunder, Mr. Lincoin's proclamation, and hurry our people away upon the rushing title of excitement. We protest against the name "Union Democracy," because it is improper, superfluous, and the innocent alike of both section and linkcusable hlunder, Mr. Lincoin's proclamation, and hurry our people away upon the rushing
title of excitement. We advise them to be agriculated advantage of that griveous and leaxtitle tempt to retake it; and, if the same doom should overtake Fort Pickens, the Government would probably submit to the result with equal discusable hlunder, Mr. Lincoin's proclamation,
and hurry our people away upon the rushing
title of excitement. We advise them to be agriculated advantage of that griveous and leaxtitle of excitement. We advise them to be and the innocent alike of both section of the connect of the innocent alike of both section and thus control in the serve to say.

We protest against the name "Union Democracy," because it is improper, superfluous, aball unfortunately occur, and way yet are the popular acceptation of the term would be likely to arise. And this event is altogethor at the dependent on excite the innocent alike of both sections of the connection.

It is the official duty of the President of the United States to excent the laws, but, when the innocent alike of both sections of the connection.

It is the official duty of the President of the United States to excent the laws, but, when in the popular acceptation of the tempt to say in the deaper of a collision at Sumpter or Pickand the rule deviced in the innocent alike of the world the offers a like result. tempt to retake it; and, if the same doom should pleases. We prefer to say in season what we An attempt is now made by the secessionists the innocent alike of both sections of the to disturb the axisting status should go against the Government. The to disturb the axisting status should go against the Government. The came the consequences. We believe this ready to apply if aithfully to the case, if and prily the case should be developed. We pray de the interest in support of the alleged and too contradictory to admit of profitable discussion under the Constitution. It is the Government at least considers steef as a support of the proposition of the Democrati insists upon the name, because, as he says, there "is meaning in the name just now," it is pleased the reafter in support of the alleged in the power of the name just now," it is pleased hereafter in support of the pleased hereafter in support of the power of the And the Thronic of American State of the Contraction of the Contractio resentative at Charleston, April 8.

(No. 1.) The very disaster of the encounter would save the only point worth saving beforehand. On this account the government could have no adequate motive for attempting to retake the forts if they should be seized. And (Nigned)

(Nigned) G. T. BEALREGARD,

(Nigned) G. T. BEALREGARD,

(Nigned) Maytromery, April 10. forcible seizure, are no more to us than any as the Democrat seems eager to put upon other equal extent of space held by the revolu- them. Why they would so regard this sacritionists, and there would be scarcely a better reason for attempting to retake them victions which form a part of the nature of carry its own mails and has not been expecting to the matter of the Border Slave States. We believe that the ampter, and, on Major Anderson's refusal to not only impolitic hut atterly indefensible. that "no Union man need count himself one We assume that it would not be made. For of the Union Democracy unless he chooses." these reasons we are of the opinion that the Verily, this is cool as well as condescending. nists. There is no room attack on Sumpter will not result in wide- A Unionist is to be allowed to call himself by his proper name if he chooses, only, it If it shall not, and the Administration con- he does, he can't "count himself" a regthe assembling of the people of the several political family. Worse and worse! ()ni hostilities? This is not even pretended. The lag the disputed jurisdiction of the nation to in vindicating the name "Union Democracy" control, and with a manifest view to expedite permitted to call ourselves Unionists at the neighbor of the Democrat must see that wait on the judgment of the nation Itself, as on such grounds he not only helps to keep a both duty and sound policy dictate, the conse- firehrand in our ranks hut fans it with his quences of the collision at Charleston may yet own breath. Why should be vindicate the at Washington. overwhelm the authors of the enorm'y instead name at all? We know our neighbor does not whom it was levelled. Heaven grant that the the calamities of his country and out of the tended to Mr. Breckinridge to address its the preservation of peace, so far as in us lies, just informed Gov. Pickens and myself that Administration, in whose hands the fate of our magnanimous patriotism of the Whigs of his members, says "the hill for the election of between our Northern brethren and our Southbeloved country rests so largely at this fearful State. He is above, far above, anything so juncture, may prove equal to the all but overbeggarly as that. We cheerfully acquit him of shich had previously passed the House, was but let us be independent of both. powering responsibilities that weigh apon it, mon desire of the Union men of Kentucky to put speech." The is ference from this might be that but we shall have had no agency in the accura-We did not help to bring It into power. It is forth one common effort for the salvation of the action of the Senate was infinenced by the ed work, and we shall possess a right, a sathe Administration picked and elected by the designation for the common party, which, be- rect this, we would State that the bill had stained and polluted by it. We can say to the revolutionists themselves to subserve their prebrains as to consider this an act of hostility or the threatening of one. The answer to the ment. It is the last Administration we should wish to see in power at anytime, much more at struction and his party to defeat for the sake ever, the bill was offered in the House as an can say to the Government of the Confederate raph, therefore, is clear beyond dispute. The a time like this. But it is the constitutional repof such a barren cause? Is there any justice original report from its Committee on Federal States that they shall not send troops across it in this? Is there any prindence? Is there any Relations, and, having been passed, was sent to for the invasion of the North. We can keep is the lawful Government of our country. It sense? We own we can see nothing of either. the Senate, which body promptly concurred in them apart until they have time to recover tionisss falls the responsibility of this lament.

able collision. They have assumed the awful put forth its energies to preserve itself.

matter is for the simplest fairness. They are the Senate, after the delivery of the speech of willing and anxious, in this critical juncture of Mr. Breckinridge, with as much logical certainty in the midst of unequalled perils can matter is for the simplest fairness. They are the Senate, after the delivery of the speech of willing and anxious, in this critical juncture of Mr. Breckinridge, with as much logical certainty in the midst of unequalled perils can matter is for the simplest fairness.

They have assumed the awful put forth its energies to preserve itself. Under such circumstances, we should deem onrthe country, to co-operate with Democrats of tainty as that the old lady had a royal suitor, the Border Slave States is the only one that selves lost to all sense of patriotism, and lost all varieties on the broad basis of devotion to lor, Why, pending the appeal of the Border Slave-holding States to the sovereign tribunal of the led shall place them in the false position of when they do. Such is our fervent prayer, having cast off their Whigism, the most cher. marks as follows upon two classes of opinions ished political possession of their lives, and of represented in the Virginia Convention, though Fellow-citizens of Kentucky, there are having clothed themselves with Democracy, the classification does not probably embrace all desolated by war even as it would be blasted and certain truths which a great many of as do not the object of their lifelong abhorrence. And Its members: have—the Sonthern Confederacy claims to be are unwilling to be placed in this false position;

The men who applied this new-fangled name not pretend to have any. Their action even in my of our country.

Now how stand we of Kentneky towards one other respects was purely recommendatory, decountry? Do we, feeling and acting in view pending for its validity on the subsequent ac-What was the object of the revolu- of the obligations of our allegiance, wish to ceptance of the masses of the party. Their humiliated, degraded, overthrown by a foreign cious, and has been cordially accepted by the willing to see our country wronged and dis. is thus a nullity. And as such it will be treat-Cotton States Confederacy treat the people of The secessionists for their own purposes will but, if the President's purpose in rais-

> Government of the acceding States. That no troops from Kentucky for the invasion of for the war," but these miserable officers evithat the administration at Washington had no rageous some of their acts may have been. Intention to throw reinforcements into its fort | To the Editors of the Louisville Journal: purchased by our merchants, come through off Charleston, but merely to send food by an Fellow-citizens: stand holdly forth and show the Charleston market. Yet under these cirmitting the little hand of hungry heroes to be fed, and instead of even awaiting the appear- sent that despatch. It contains four assertions, ance of the United States vessel upon her mls- | which are four falsehoods. It was concocted sion of bumanity, opened a score of batteries by some rascal for dishonest purposes. Probaupon Sumpter, and has probably laid it in bly others similar to it have been sent in all rulns, and perhaps slanghtered the

> > There was no reason for this bloody as There was not even a plausible pretext for lt. It was the deed of men hangering and thirsting for blood and slaughter and revolution. The administration at Washington may have been nawise; the administration at Montgom-

TUESDAY, APRIL 16, 1861. munication from the pen of Judge ligent, and reflecting man knows how it was and the South. Abolitionism is but one of the

Nicholas. We understand an impression prevails North, after having, in violation of the spirit which is warring with equal violence against

PUBLIC MEETINO. -The Journal of this day following Mr. Lincoln's departure for the those whose loyalty to accession is wavering in candidates inevitable by adopting measures for Northern conservatives the folly of their sn. springing immediately ble results, though of course felt most severely section but would prevade the whole West and mics of the country have placed him. Let ment acted strictly on the defensive. The ducts itself beneforth with prudence and selfas merely vindictive, for we think it not unseemingly about to be luaugurated, none of the public functionaries connected with the firm and steadfast, between the North and the responsible in any respect to the Government

The Richmond Whig, referring to the late Border Slave States, at the very earliest pracnvitation of the Kentneky Legislature ex- tleahle moment, hand ourselves together for delegates to the Border State Convention, ern hrethren. Let us be the friends of both, passed in the Senate after the delivery of the declare war against each other if they will, Why, then, will be insist upon a tone of Mr. Breckinridge's remarks. To corcred right, to prevent our soil from being previously passed the Senate, but the dis- U. S. Government that we occupy neutral ter-The demand of the Union Whigs in this its salutary provisions. It, therefore, passed from their excited passions and return to their

The Charlottsville (Va.) Review re

The extreme secession. The co-operation secessionists are for the burder conference. The latter has been uniformly the position of this journal. The policy of the extreme secessionists leads to the rejection by the people by twanty thousand majority of an ordinance of secession. It will inspect to us. But, whether they were grateful or ungrateful, we should have the satisfied of the whole the state of the property of the whole the state of the property of the whole the state of the property of the property of the whole the state of the property of the

Upon this the National Intelligencer remarks that if the analysis and prediction be ginia are unconsciously the best "Union men." and unless their opponents shall practice extraordinary discretion they are in danger of be coming, in the end, the most determined se-the following dispatch last evening: each against the other. FRANKFORT, April 15.

Editors Louisville Journal:
Requisition on Governor Magoffin from War

said. If our suggestions are deemed worthy loss of time. Their adoption might do good; it certainly could not make the condition of tect the Capital of the States against the troops things worse than it would otherwise be likely of the Confederate States or any other power, A considerable number of military and ing the forces he now calls for is to invade the South for the recapture of all the United naval officers, after having been educated by they not make no just as much aliens as they just will continue to apply it we do not know. States property that has been seized, his reuisition upon Gov. Magoffin must have been quarter of a century, more or less, apon its made as a mere matter of form and without the slightest expectation of its being complied | into service where there is a chance of a little The war at Charleston was begun by the with. The l'resident knows that he can have fighting. We often hear of men's "enlisting

> Government was fully notified and assured, the Southern States, however lawless and out- dently enlisted for the page. The Star-Spangled Banner is the flag o LEXENOTON, April 15, 1861. A deepatch from Louisvilla here says that the > Journal has turned secession, Gen. Scott resigned, > Virginia seceded, and Stata Guards ordared out.
> What is tha truth?
> SAM. D. McCULLOUGH. ette, Pulaski, Gates, Putnam, Jackson, Scott, Decatur, Perry, Clay, and Taylor. The Yancey, Pickens, Twiggs, and Toombs. Under which, oh Patriots of Kentucky, will ye Now we should like to know who it was that rally? that the banks of that city have taken five nundred thousand dollars of the loan authorized by the Montgomery Congress. Why men, who, in their attempt to defend it, were promote the cause of secession. The miscre- didn't they take the whole five millions? Non- him. He couldn't croka a cheer. His speech performing as solemn a duty to their country ant guilty of the vile deed deserves to be hung specie paying banks, meeting their obligations with their own irredeemable paper, can take weighty. The North and the South have alike set

The report of postal statistics during the at nanght the connsels and the interests of Kentucky. We owe nothing to either of them. Let us act for ourselves, without being infin- ing States, the receipts were $936, 101, and sometimes stormy. And you might about as the expenditures $2,879,528. Does this afford well preach calmness to the one as to the either. What indications have they given that any explanation of the anxlety of the Cotton they care for us except so far as they can hope States to have the Federal Government at Washington continue to carry their mails for Mr. Lincoln keeps his own connsels so movements of the Government to its enemies. Inntest sort of men.

It is altogether a mistaken view of the

as as as well-warmed, well-warmed and amountable effects. The least of two strongly to the opinion that the shock will now the original theaster, unless, per-al beyond its original theaster, unless, pe any recorded in modern or in ancient history.

Such calamities must be averted if it is in the power of wise and good and patriotic men to flusiness, for the Sonth is not prepared to carry its own mails and has not been expecting. dity of these important States is rendered plain and palpable in the lurid and baleful light of passing events. If we were to go with the South, or if we were to go with the South, or if we were to go with the South, or if we were to go with the south of the trungle between the two sections. North, the struggle between the two sections which the whole country would then be set to the conflict be supported by Gos. Because the future duty of Kentucky may be, would not have been shamefully and basely would not have been shamefully States," we are not prepared to say that we States, we are not prepared to say that we of course cannot with certainty foresee;

States, we are not prepared to say that we of course cannot with certainty foresee;

What the future duty of Kentucky may be, we of course cannot with certainty foresee;

we of course cannot with certainty foresee;

where of course cannot with certainty foresee; terror that would in all probability extend beyond the years of our lives and the lives of our will command the admiring gratitude of the South, and, in doing so, confer a mighty blessing upon both, besides securing their own comparative welfare and prosperity. Let us of the them. To us it is given, as organized comthe voluntary champions of freedom, right, and social order, in every part of this country. If we are faithful leaders in this mighty conthe world. And not the least of the joys of for them, as well as for ourselves, and for our North. And when the delusion of a divided nationality has been played out to its bad and we believe it never will become discernality, and owing allegiance to its Constitution, ble. We, however, have deemed it fit, in concan be willing, merely because a Republican hitter end, the real people of the separating sideration of all the extraordinary resultingen of the secessionists in dividing the Den States will come back to our embrace, and to their own, once and again, happy home.

occurs to us as holding ont the slightest ravation of the whole country from a destiny wretched beyond all conception. It is, we cardo here, all the grape-vines of the South would most critical moment of the most trying junewatchful of the honor of his country as he was we have a good president for it in our country as he was nestly believe, tha only policy, hy which we can be used in hanging them and the North Caro- ture in our history, still be true to the country, of that of himself or his family, but alas, wa try. When Jackson sens Con. Scott to South prevent our entire land from being blasted and line tar crop would be speedily exhausted. desolated by a sea of fire. The States North of ences of our positiou and in their inmost hearts | contemporary heartlessly remarks, that, if they

blood of their country men? Why? What is the motive of this strange and most unnatural country to which we all owe and all acknowlated at our country. All the motive of the motive of this strange and most unnatural country to which we all owe and all acknowlated at our country. All the motive of the motive of this strange and most unnatural country to which we all owe and all acknowlated at our country to which we all owe and all acknowlated at our country to which we all owe and all acknowlated at our country to which we all owe and all acknowlated at our country to which we all owe and all acknowlated at our country to which we all owe and all acknowlated at our country to which we all owe and all acknowlated and the movement is breken. Secsesion is dead. The offering our possions and our lives and the lives of our fam. The policy of the contemps. And we hope our sessions and our lives and the lives of our fam. The policy of the country to which we all owe and all acknowlated at our country to which we all owe and all acknowlated and the movement is breken. Secsesion is dead. The offering our possions and our lives and the lives of our fam. The policy of the contemps. And we hope our sessions and our lives and the lives of our fam. The policy of the contemps. And we hope our sessions and our lives and the lives of our fam. The policy of the contemps. And we hope our fam. The policy of the contemps. And we hope our fam. The policy of the contemps. The protection of our possions and our lives and the lives of our fam. The policy of the contemps. And we hope our fam. The policy of the contemps. And we hope our fam. The policy of the contemps. The protection of our possions and our lives and the lives of our fam. The policy of the contemps. The protection of our possions and our lives and the lives of our fam. The policy of the contemps. The protection of our possions and our lives and the lives of our fam. The policy of the contemps. The protection of our possions and our lives and the lives of our fam. The poli regard of what they both knew to be our wishes and our Interests, and they can have no such fellows as Davis and Yancey and Rhett brink of secession into the bloody pit below? cause to complain of as for standing aloof from and Wigfall and Greeley and Giddings exist. Is Kentucky a craven that she requires the inboth of them alike. Indeed if they had a full perhaps equal cause, to pray fervently to us ment of the Sonthern Confederacy, said in a and fervently to God, that we should stand late speech in Atlanta: "We can send our where we are, that we should stand a sover- young men to war and not miss them." That's elgn power betwirt them to stay the march of certainly a rich compliment to the "young We ask our fellow-citizens of all the Border I am not only anxious for the Border States to

Well, Mr. Hill, offer your inducements. Let us take a good look at them. We havn't PHILIP TOMPERT. stance enough to cast a shadow?

The secessionists complain that their section was oppressed under the old government and yet they are now exercising over their the United States and after having lived a quarter of a century, more or less, apon its bonnty, have resigned just as soon as ordered speech. They grind out of them the very soul fanaticism and Sonthern insanity might perhape cause this age to be shuddered at and ab-Vashington, Jefferson, Adams, Henry, Lafay- darkest and most dreadful in the world's his-No patriot or philanthropist ever rejoiced in the prospect of peaca and fraternity and prosperity and plenty more fervently than tha hope of war and hate and famine and desola-Col. HUMPHREY MARSHALL. - Our fat riend made a secession speech at La Grange erday. He hadn't more than 50 to hear was as heavy as himself-more heavy to be calm in times like these. The people last fiscal year show, that, in the seven seced- are like the atmosphere—sometimes calm and

A contemporary asks whether we have no, but we have a great deal for our country, for the star-spangled hanner, for our obligacourse it would like to have Thompson and selves.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17, 1861. COMMONWEALTH.

llegal. This impression is not correct. The slaveholders, nominated sectional candidates the North have seen this from the beginning; duced the legitimate fruit of such a combina- if the facts were as they are now said on ap-Proclamation is strictly within the letter of the for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the had too easily yielded to the laddle tion. Disunlon and war are upon the land. parently good anthority to have been, he was law. The legality of the Proclamation is its United States last spring. The ultra politi- gent temptation of treating these insolent No further retrospect is necessary for the puronly redeeming feature, and this feature doesn't cians of the South, impelled by a life-long ravings with silent contempt. The sudden poses of this brief Address. The past is nor wrong he may be in others. The circu hatred of the Union, and not doubting that elevation of that party, by the aid of Southern derstood. We here propose to touch alone stances of the case are by no means generally the election of the Northern candidates could disminonist, to be a controlling political power of the present and the future.

be used as the most certain means of its dissolities of the land, blasting by its breath the fairest A condition of hostilities, as is known, exmorning contains a call, signed by eight or ten lutlon, proceeded to render the success of those beritage of man upon earth, has proved to lists between the seconding States and the Na- American:

The real character of the conflict before us with the Union against them both, declaring son. They were both all the Southern States in the American Union will command the admiring gratitude of the will command the admiring gratitude of the world now and in future ages. Let the people of these States shake from them the mean and miserable trickeries of the hour, and look in the states through the fall assertion therein of the national jurisdiction by a standing military among them that would not have regarded the force, we do not he sitate to say that Kentucky should promptly unsheath her sword in behalf United States Government and Major Ander. 4th of July, for chapter 82, article 4 of the Reshould promptly unsheath her sword in behalf to the glorious career which opens before the them become the common to the glorious career which opens before cause. Such an event, if it should occur, of they had yielded to the extraordinary and a called session which we confess there does not appear to us most involent requisition, that Major A , as a to be a rational probability, could have but condition of being permitted to withdraw one meaning,—a meaning which a people jealous of their liberty would be keen to desect, and which a people worthy of liberty would be it but raise in its place the Southern Confedtory, for ourselves, for our country, and for tucky detects this meaning in the action of the requisition upon the Government and its repre- between the day of publication and the day of Government, she ought, without counting the sentative officer for the sacrifice not only of all inviting to a full and free participation of its cost, to take up arms at once against the Gov. patriotism but of all national character and on the first Saturday of Man ernment. Until she does detect this meaning, all self-respect? benefits the erring sisters who have abandoned us to a conflict rendered by their desertion so difficult and so severe. Yes, we will conquer sides, and compel both sides to respect the inviolability of her soil. The portentous meanrecognizing the United States as their coun

Such, as we conceive, is the present and con-If those, who are opposed to the Southern Government, were to exercise the same discharge this duty? Will she abide nobly by try's enemies. The time was, and certainly license of speech and action in the South that the dictates of patriotism, of wadom, and of not long ago, when every respectable Amerithe opposers of the United States Government enlightened self-interest? Will she, in this can citizen was supposed to be as jealously companies, that have gone to Pensacola, call quivering masts of the ship of the Union, tion to the glorious old National Banner is to all the officers, and themselves the "Mississippi Irrepressibles." A throw overboard such tried and trusted pilots as Cristenden and Guthrie and More- temptible prejudice and as the evidence of the head and Dixon and Bell and Wickliffs and lack of personal spirit. This seems indeed ority of an ordinance of secession. It will insult of the whole of the The Ilon. B. H. Hill, one of the very ablest of the Georgia leaders in the establishher for the perils that confront her? Must she proposed from Washington, they prescribed

Does it become proud and gallant Kentucky and abject as to accept. The conflict at Charleshour? Kentuckians! we submit the momentons case to you with nuwavering confidence, EO. D. PRENTICE, JAMES SPEED, HAMILTON PUPE,

L. E. HARVIE. THE UNION MUST BE PRESERVED. THE VENERABLE PATRIOT CRITTENDRS IN TH maka a general canvass of the State, we are gratified to learn that he has consented to address his fellow-citizens as follows:

We have all prided ourselves upon the To the Editors of the Louisville Journal: glories of our age, not dreaming that Northern GENTLEMEN: Will you please publish the es bject of national politics at the following times Calboon, Tnesday, April 23d Madisonville, Wednesday, April 24th. Hopkinsville, Thursday, April 25th.

Hartforu, monday, April 29th. Caneyville, Tuesday, April 30th. Hawseville, Thursday, May 2d.

greesional District of Kentucky, will address the the rich accessionists of Mississippi to be given before day does. who enters Fort Pickens in the pending annualt.

We guess that the first man who mounts the tradicts himself so often that one might miss ture their daily lies 'see of whole and the first man who mounts the tradicts himself so often that one might miss ture their daily lies 'see of whole and the first man who mounts the tradicts himself so often that one might miss ture their daily lies 'see of whole and the first man who mounts the tradicts himself so often that one might miss ture their daily lies 'see of whole and the first man who mounts the tradicts himself so often that one might miss ture their daily lies 'see of whole and the first man who mounts the tradicts himself so often that one might miss ture their daily lies 'see of whole and the first man who mounts the tradicts himself so often that the first man who mounts the tradicts himself so often that the first man who mounts the tradicts himself so often that the first man who mounts the tradicts himself so often that the first man who mounts the tradicts himself so often that the first man who mounts the tradicts himself so often that the first man who mounts the tradicts himself so often that the first man who mounts the tradicts himself so often that the first man who mounts the tradicts himself so often the trad parapat will be pretty sure to put his foot in it, take him for the talegraph.

VENTS PARCEDING THE ASSAULT -We have Er We publish on fourth page another able terrible import. Every dispassionate, Intel-merely or at all an issue between the North ADDRESS OF THE UNION STATE been disposed, like most others, to think that CENTRAL COMMITTEE OF KEN- the President was very unwise if not very un-TUCKY TO THE PEOPLE OF THE patriotic in not falfilling what was at one time at Atlanta, said: in some quarters that the Prondent's most extraordinary and unjustifiable Proclamation is of the Constitution, waged for years a relent.

of the Constitution, waged for years a relent.

ciple of social order. The higher minds of sectional question of slavery has at length pro obedience to a seeming military necessity, but, among them that would not have regarded the tra section of Congress to be convened on the

at an early day. sideration of all the extraordinary features of has been made its President through the agency Some of our contem ing the idea of having the each of allegiance the have fallen now upon evil days when patrict- Carolina to put down the Nullification m tempest of civil war begins to roar through the lam is scoffed at and derided and when devo-ment, the eath of allegiance was adminis would besitate to abide this test of levalty.

that it would, and the full intention that it ably has already, the pr fellow-citizens do not know this now, they will know it hereafter, and the world will know it. What and where and when will the end her

Wa appeal to all the high-minded and the high-hearted of every section to say whether he, who would countenance such a dishoner to the "abolition army," and Coneral Scene is ble condition of his not being assailed by a hundred times his own force with shot and niated to carry out the system of er shell, can be fit to bear the flag of any people on earth better than a horde of bandisti or piore of the Union in a false position.

rates. The Administration and its gallant representative in Sumpter properly refused to hands, and for that refusal the fort was bom- pieces of articlery were recently shipped from et unparalleled outrage. It is well calcu. Isn't it rather curious that a city, whilst raislated to excite the burning indignation of all ing troops for battle, furnishes the enemy with cannon to shoot them with Er Look through all the annals of our calling out an army of 73,000 men for the inand learn what has been the general vertice ration of the South, an invasion which he must know, unless the demon of invanity has taken borrible ruin and prostration of North and pression of our deep conviction that the Border

if necessary, to best back, both the North and cope enough to effect a march through their

But the men of the North have makes on President Lincoln nor President Davis, if the hern a few adigators?

is breaking in the Southern Confederacy. We are afraid that both Confederacies will break

Our worthy neighbor of the Courier con- an l friend has confounded things essentially as well over, it was long an open question, and is probably still a disputed one in some quarters, Let them at least make their own pothoroughly understood by the whole address of the Union State Central issee, let all who still acknowledge a ter, let all who deprecate a desoath and the South against the North, on and traiters wherever they exist and It can need no ringing of bells, no firing of annon, no marching of processions with ban arencies, to bring patriots toether when the salvation and glory of Kon try are at stake and when the nation is deady awasting the result.

athentic intelligence from Frankfort that Gor Magolin has issued his proclamation g the Legeslature at Frankfort on the 10 persuade them that they have already vol-27th of the present mouth. The proclama-rents, will make a desperate struggle to hurry irm in six trials, will falter in the seventh?

thing is good, more is better and the whole adily duned, so easily cheated, into her own and believed, has declared war against unprecedented juncture, will do whatever she state between us and the angry waves of desonceives it to be clearly her duty to do for the will without four or live days. It tion of peace, and for the maintenance of her drifted into an unknown and tempestnons sea. own safety and of her own honor. If, in the prosecution of this fixed determination, she is wil aid in no warfare against the Government pray for its speedy removal, not hail it as a abolition articles, and so you had to send them of the "Confederate States," and protesting gainst the Government of the Unied States, deeming that she best discharges guards her own soil against invasion from necessary, her physical strength, to keep the belignerent powers apart, neither the Northnor the South will venture, or could with safety venture, to dissurb her in her position. She posterity. The not to be binding on Kentucky, but she must of that low-postage system? Are you at all Yes, this is Mr. Breckinridge's position, and 11? can justly be said of it is, that it is absurd, States Convention, and after uniting with the a two-legged animal.

be willing to come back upon the strength of them, she would be guilty of as poor and vile tice that Kentucky must agree to nothing that have not a particle of sincerity in their souls. suffrage. pocrisy. It is adopted but as a means of acwell that no proposition, which Kentneky through their organs, all asseverate, that they Our ruised State would look as of their coming. And surely, whilst they say this, it seems like a bitter insult even to then > out of the Union or getting up something tha If Mr. Breckinridge and his men would Border States Convention put forth a propos tion upon which the Southern Confederacy will Union, certainly they had better advocate The abolitionists insist that it shan't be exsmoking Kentucky's secession at once. Why go through Breckinridge, for nothing? Why go into the propositions submitted to the free States, and Wouldn't this be worse than chile sen's play? Wouldn't it be fools' play? emently against what is called "coercion, secoding States utterly and establish the Napliebed that any patriot or good citizen could they with their myriads will in- desire. The old Union might exist in name, ade us; and every man of common sense can but only in name. There would be nothing o the vitality of freedom in the conquered po and straight before us, and when were sentenced to have dead bodies chained to about with them till they became dead bodies esterday that Gov. Morton, of Indiana, had defence and his surrender of Sumpter. The are trying to raise recruits here for the "Conraging excitement ln the midst of us, to hurry Kentucky out of the Union, actuall will not resort to for the accomplishment of war conflagration, which nothing less than the as savages of each other's history. rnment, if it chooses, will soon have at its pily, the shock of battle mast come, it will

The Courier, noticing the public meet-Tuesday at the court-house, it was stated that those who demanded the surrender of Fort Jeff Davis upon them. When this imperial coln that it was his determination to reinforce he ordered the dies to be broken. it at all hazards. We contradicted this by the statement of the noquestionable fact that the tion to provision Fort Sumpter. The Courier undertakes to defend the statebe copper-heads. ment in the call, but it can't be defended, for would ol course have published the notification, and the Conrier would be oble to produce it. But assuredly no such notification ment. Kentucky has refused to obey the was given, and un Charleston paper pretends that any each was given.

Tribuse. Even the unknown writer of that as formally different. In point of fact, morethat the administration gave the South authorities notice that it meant to reinforce eracy and our Northern Confederacy, if that whether or not the Governor of a State in such Sumpter; he merely alleges that such was custom were revived, would soon be in danger cases is bound to obey the requisition of the President. The question, it is true, was at last President. The quantity by the Supreme Court; settled affirmatively by the Supreme Court; Washington correspondence, and yet now h but, in this age of individual sovereignty, the takes an anonymous statement of an unknown authority of Supreme Courts is itself not always and everywhere deemed binding. But correspondent of that great abolition organ as this by the way; we have no thought of putting in a plea for Kentucky on this ground. Kentacky frankly disobers the requisition of the President, and accepts the full responsibility of her disobedience. She is ready to answer for very extraordinary. The truth is, no justification, no excuse, n the offence at any bar before which she can appear. We aver only that the offence, what-ever it may be, is not in any admissible sense ever it may be, is not in any admissible some a revolt against the government, whilst it is in outrage, a shocking and revolting outrage. It was an act of marderous atrocity. It was the highest sense an effort in behalf of the government. It is a departure from merely government. It is a departure from merely formal duty at the behast of essential duty unformal duty at the behast of essential duty unand throughout all the free States, and will other goods than glory? All this is plain enough to intelligent persona.

And the persons of this description who urge that Gov. Magoffin in refusing to obey the probably be responded to with corresponding deeds of fary and insanity. It has impelled the administration to the stapendous madness of calling out on investment of the corresponding deeds of fary and insanity. It has impelled the administration to the stapendous madness of the corresponding deeds of fary and insanity. President's requisition has thrown Kentucky into "a state of revolution" arge the absurdity for a purpose. Nor is the purpose in the least obscure. It is simply to prevail upon the peo-ple to think that they are now in "a state of diminish their just abhorrence of secession;it. Let it be stopped where it is if the friends so will the Republicans. netarily taken the abhorred step, and that all of our country and our race have power to repugnance to going a step further into seces- stop it. on is illogical and silly; to draw them on The Atlanta (Ga.) Intelligencer says into the vortex of revolution by making them there are more than four millions of men in believe that they are at present standing com- the North who will withstand the Government placently in the dreaded current. The purpose in its war against the Sonth. We wish with is a cauning one; but it can't succeed, for two all our hearts there were enough friends of the mily hope and trust that the true reasons. The people, in the first place, are far South in the North and enough friends of the It is a great deal more important that they too intelligent to be made to fancy that the re- North in the South to avert at once the hostile on, will stand as nobly up through the fasal to obey the requisition of the Pres- movements of their respective sections, but we olution"; and, even if they were not, they, bility is, that, in both directions, ontside of the There are men who ask Kentucky to join at in the second place, are far too sagacious Border Slave States, armed hoets will rush nee the Southern Confederacy for the protecto imagine, that, because a little of a unchecked to the horrid festival of blood. STAND FIRM!-Such is the sound advice We trust she is not to be so best of all. Yet this ridiculous assumption is given by the Nashville Banner to the Union what Mr. Breckinridge would delight to call men of the Border States, who have clung to "the underlying principle" of the brilliant the Union in the very anguish of despair. "Let poset in hand. We beg the accessionists to the Border States stand firm and act together truction, and until the last beacon light of re-establishment of the Union, for the promo-hope twinkles out in the distance, as we are own safety and of her own honor. If, in the prosecution of this fixed determination, she is in any particular carried beyond the technical hounds of her allegiance to the government of the Union, she will lament the necessity, and were not Yankee editors." Ah, "Ilumphrey, we were not Yankee editors." Ah, "Ilumphrey, we were not Yankee enough to publish your old the suppressed by the ord the Union, she will lament the necessity, and were not Yankee enough to publish your old

Kentucky, after going into the Border Slave The only way Floyd ever "forks" is in being the emotion that swelled her bosom. We guess that the emotion which swelled her dear little and hollow a mockery as the human mind can from pirating New England copy-righted books.

highest admiration of the masses of the people n that section. They think them fit for almost stole from the whole people of the United ment between the North and the South is ex-go to war, and we guess they will soon be like | 6; tha "argument." and fit out vessels for the African slave trade.

about the necessity of Kentucky's either going for the use of the slave dealers.

is a Bob-tailed concern. The South asks that slavery be extend-tended another minute. ,800 undertakers. So we see that It takes upon an average only eleven doctors to keep

When men have broken one oath of al-

The Courier says that the people of the the people of the North are so too. But both rnal "is or should be high administration Ife should be ashamed of such

If it were so, we would either carry off the sake of reconstructing him or it. We that place in the North is the vilest Abolition hole. We think 'tis Horace Greeley's mouth.

would like a mission to Turkey. We hope to We would on no account represent the United States abroad at this time, for we ould be ashamed of our country. ately abducted two sisters named Payne. Such

If the North and the South think lightly u-slaveholding States without seeing that a of each other's valor, they must be as ignorant framed for exhibition. We are often in a te are of the feminine gender.

FRIDAY, APRIL to, 1861. inage of Confederate cents with the head of DEFENCE OF KENTUCKY .- GOV. Magoffin s now in Louisville. has changed his mind and concluded not t We think that Davis's hend might very convene the Legislature. He has asked from properly be stamped upon the copper coin of the banks a loan to the amount of three or four administration simply gave notice of its inten- the Confederate States, and Greeley's upon the per cent of all the stock owned by the State in copper coin of the North, as then they would those institutions, and we ere informed that some tion, 'Shall we have wai?' The minds of men ple, were imbned with their sparit, instead of The news of the collision at Charleston has been received regretfully by the Union Kentucky in a condition of armed neutrality exact reasons for his apprehensions. The former feel like patriots trembling lor the and not to take her out of the United States ed the Declaration of Independence and of American power and glory—but lately peace of the country, while the latter, like in- and defend her in her revolt. We have advocated and do-carnestly adve furiated partisans, care for nothing but the recipitation of the Border States into anarchy, cate the thorough arming of the State of Kenvantage may ensue from the reconstruction of In the first place, what authority has the Go ernor to borrow money in this case in behalf happily, contentedly, and prosperously, are and have first betrayed, then debauched the of the State? What power has he to pledge now divided among themselves, end the fiercest people. The government has passed into in-In ancient Etruria a dehtor who coulthe faith of the State for its repayment? not pay was followed by a crowd of boys him. We are afraid that our Southern Confednor, whose personal honor we do not for a moment question, will, in the disbursement measure or entirely to the strong wills of those the golden cord of national fraternity is snap-He and old Abe will then be in striking dis- ercise a most potent influence upon his official tance of each other. There may be danger of action? their committing a breach of the peace. We shall have to employ a police officer to keep an been in the closest consultation with the very name in the deathless annals of history, are strongest and bitterest and most active of the The secessionists ask, "where will Kendisnnionists that we have among us. tneky go?" When the countryman was asked especial matter of consultation between him "where does this railroad go?" he answered and them has certainly been the obtaining o "the road doesn't go at all." Kentucky won't this loan from the Banks. The loan is the banner which, first upreared on Bunker's wanted, we may depend upon it, for direct or ndirect disunion purposes. If obtained, it The Charleston merchants complain bit. will, we have no doubt, be used for disunion when it was raised upon the halls of the Monterly that they can do nothing with their goods, purposes. The Governor's Proclamation convening the Legislature was withdrawn after having gone to the printing office because the disunion managers at Frankfort and Lexingeceding ton concluded that the Legislature might b stes "selfish." But how can they be selfish intractable, and that their great purpose could when, like the Northern States, they are noto- best be accomplished by getting $500,000 into alienation, rancor, antagonism and sectional the hands of the Executive, to be expended withriously doing everything in their power to deout legislative restraint. The worthy Governor North and the South seem now impossible, when mittee to be designated for the purpose; he der to shoulder they went through the Revolu-The secession organ at Montgomery wants to have the whole disbursement of it tion; hand in hand they stood around the adcoasts that the secessionists have hailt their defence, and dying

graphical parties and the impolicy of suffer

of a private committee of his own choosing. We want Kentucky armed, but not in the we want returned as cause of disunion. We want her armed, as one of the resolutions adopted unanimously by the tremendous meeting at the Court-House last night expresses it, "by repular last night expresses it, "by repular action." The measure proposed hy the Governor, whose strong disunion preferences and associations are well known, is a most extraordinary one; and all concerned should look to this matter with the keenest should look to this matter with the gallant son of a patriot who fourseers.

The measure of disunion. We want her armed, as one of the resolutions adopted unanimously by the tremendous meeting at the Court-House last night expresses it, "by repular why not turn their weapons again against a common enemy, a directuland pestilent loc, the will, unscrupulous political tricksters who have on the alightest doubt as to any one of these things.

The measure of disamon preferations are well known, is a most extraordinary one; and all concerned should look to this matter with the keenest should look to this matter with the keenest should look to this matter with the gallant son of a patriot who fourseers.

The continuation of the state, but the form money applied for by him is wanted by disamonists for disamon promounts, and that the money applied for by him is wanted by disamonists for disamon promounts of common enemy, a directular of those privateers can manage, by fast sailing or otherwise, to elude the Northern men-ef-war, the depredations upon Northern commerce will perhaps amount to an almost otal annihilate that all money was that the money applied for by him is wanted by disamonists for disamon preferation of 7,000 men has been of these things.

The continuation of 7,000 men has been of the forward anneous that the influence of disamonnum or the influence of disamonnum as turn their madicas and sin. If the Court-House test turn their turn their weapons again against a common enemy, a directular the product of the states, but the force of disamonnum as turn their turn their weapons again agai reckinridge "distills the waters of revolu- one of the resolutions adopted unanimously by tion," We suppose his admirers will follow the tremendous meeting at the Court-House Both the North and the South think it ery important that they conciliate Europe. BLACK AND RED. - The black man took Texas out of the Union, and the red man and seize any munitions of war that might be nown, who have so ruthlessly and sacrilegious Read Governor Dixon's letter to Mr. found. Accordingly all downward boats, for ly despoiled the peace of their homes and the a time, were compelled to lond and subjected glory of their country? Was there ever a peo-The fullowing is an unebridged copy of the to a search.

cinnati gavo evident signs of an intention to history against the evils of civil dissension, an seize several boxes of gnns and a quantity of the priceless legacy of Washington's Farewell visions purporting to be destined for Memphis and Little Rock. Those who contemplated the seizure undoubtedly thought that there | sectional interests to clash, who imperilled the was a fraud in the case—that the articles were eally meant for the Southern Confederacy. vent violence on the part of the mob, the pe ice took possession of the arrieles and gave re spatches that two steamers were employed by been without the slightest foundation.

The telegraphic version of the affair at Cin cinnati created, as our fellow-citizens know, a on her way from St. Louis to I'ittsburg with var, all articles contraband of war will be li-NEW YORK, April 13, 1861. same thing in a spirit of retaliation. 'The an- be," when, torn, wounded, and bleeding at one State, will occasionally sock refuge in the We sincerely think that much of the ill feeling ports of the opposite State and be fired at has been produced by bold, bad, and designing rage on her legitimate commerce either North | mental injustice. The South for the last thirty rtaken by the regular authorities and not that entire period, while the politicians has n telegraphic despatches. The evil day is It is certainly singular, or it would be were it onsed population in any State or States.

tion of the ordinance passed by our City and putting the city in a state of defence. A roper, in view of ull the possibilities and o make against them, and surely they have barge of all mutual obligations and the inever doubted that her soldiers would as freely True there is, as we regret to acknowledge some day, near or remote, find themselves

The telegraph wires are the conductors HENRY CLAY'S WISDOM .- When the Reong which thrill the electric pulsations of the public is shaken to its foundation and an ination's heart; every despatch has the sulphr - terminable civil war seems imminent, it is ic smell of war and seems to lead to the in- well, says the Lynchburg Virginian, to recur inevitable; the conversation of all classes of whose wisdom and constancy guided the ship citizens on the public streets or in social gath- of State through the deep perils of former years. erings has reference to the all-absorbing ques- If the men who now control her, or the peoof the bank presidents talk of letting him have are agiteted and drifting to the conclusion that floundering in deep seas with the breakers of between the Northern and Southern beligerents grandsons of those glorious patriots who sign- wave, with colors flying, and the symbol achieved the recognition of that independence known and acknowledged throughout after eight years of vicisaitnde and suffering; the earth-still eliciting the love and homthe heritors of the noblest national patrimony ege of a united, grateful, and happy people. n the vain hope that some future political adduring the lapse of eighty-five years have lived into bad hands, for the leaders are corrupt, antagonism has sprung up between those who competent hands, and incendiaries would rath-In the second place, what guarantee in the war with Great Britain from 1812 to er destroy it than await the too slow process can the bank presidents have that the Gover- 1813 and in the Mexican campaign fought of constitutional remedy for the evils we are of the money, faithfully observe the prescribed friendly tie which so long united them is discondition instead of yielding himself in a great solved; the silken link of amity is sundered; appealed to—settling nothing but the question mmon interests and the common archives of our fame and glory, with all the thrilling memif they value peace, and are prepared to resparned most contemptaeusly, and even the berment, anarchy, and war. Men honored the the banner which, first upreared on Bunker's bernuent, anarchy, and war. Seen nonored the lill, has floated mid the battle smoke, the old patriot then for his dying effort; and Kentuckian. Both were born in Jefferson any cause we may espouse. (bur plain duty is excessed to allow the battle smoke, the old patriot then for his dying effort; and harhinger of victory up to that glorious day they felt bow much patriotism and true nohiltezumas, is now deserted by those who a short twelve months since would have died in its asperity? Why should harmony between the etters of marque and reprisal against the com objects to the money's being used by a Com- in the thrilling lunguage of Webster: "Shoul- of the U. S. Government to establish, if it can, himself, subject only to the advice and counsel ministration of Washington, and felt his own sel of any description will be permitted either great arm lean on them for support?" Why to enter or to leave Charleston or Savannah or should the sword, turned against a common | Mobile or New Orleans if the Administration sible upon full stomachs? ple living in the full resplendent beams of Christian enlightenment, forewarned by al Address pointing them to the dangers of geo priceless blessings of this Union, who so reck-Ol for some outside danger to menace us-C for some insult from mighty England, or som taunt from imperial France to reunite of ment, a common enthusiasm, and a common loyalty. It cannot-it must not be, that we tendant npon an internecine war. Wherewhere can the blow be struck by a Northern them in opinion? our country's commerce down to the State of Kentucky, but among the humblest States upon that river will very soon do the border wars, and "grievous will the expiation never can be between loyalty and disloyalty.

even there; and ere long the cities and towns men, who magnify every little difficulty conension of a fugitive the battle-field. We are constrained to con- being able, backed by their active and influen- stand firm and gloriously in the breach, or slave into a cause of quarrel, and a of us or Sonth of us. But, if wrongs are to or forty years has been educated to regard the thought they were. They would seem to be be redressed, let the redress by all means be North as its natural enemy, and yet during rather harmless toys. otion that there is nothing but gospel-truth and intermarried without any apprehension. ven knows, without being hastened by a lessness of the American character, that the two or three weeks, and that be will probably mitted to bring the country to this pass. Why ed for it hy the Northern masses? If invasion it dld in Virginia a few years since, what The Charleston papers say there is a ground has the South to doubt that North- black woman in that city who owns 14 slaves, nurses and physicians would again flock to suspect that this story is merely a South Caro-ook at these matters through the mediums of lows into Charleston as suitors of that rich unionists treat the people like children, and separating and living apart several years and old up the name of the North to them as bad exhausting all their substance in war, shall 'bugaboos," Let us look at the issues before that of the old couple at Toledo, will have to astern Virginia in the event of the secession of the latter from the United States is openly empty one. wig fell off in the Congressional skirmish three are only firing at it. said to be a foot and a half-by measure-

SATURDAY, APRIL 20, 1861.

READ THE DESPATCHES .- The Pennsylva-

when, soon afterward, he was called away, they felt bow much patriotism and true nobility of soul had left the world. They honored his memory, friend and foe uniting to call it determination to seize the navy yard at Ports.

| A country to be a client, they have the sphere of our influence, by every consideration that can affect humanity, to aid in the suppression of a strife that is at once analogy, understanding the pression of a strife that is at once analogy, understanding the pression of a strife that is at once analogy, understanding the pression of a strife that is at once analogy, understanding the pression of a strife that is at once analogy, understanding the pression of a strife that is at once analogy, understanding the pression of a strife that is at once analogy, understanding the pression of a strife that is at once analogy. ity of sonl had left the world. They nonored his memory, friend and foo uniting to call it hlessed. Now he, being dead, yet speaketh, llear and heed his last impassioned utterances in behalf of Union and compromise.

The Mayor has based a preclamation alling to step the contest hy burying at once and for ever the causes of discord? Is it not provide from the second States.

The Mayor has based a preclamation alling to all good citizens to preserve the paace and recurrence of discord? Is it not provide the contest hy burying at once and for ever the causes of discord? Is it not provide the contest hy burying at once and for ever the causes of discord? Is it not provide the contest hy burying at once and for the money by the Banks to Gov. Magoffin for the arming of the State, we meant neither to express nor to imply any imputation upon the Governor's integrity. We regard him as an integrity of the State of th enemy from Monterey to Mexico, now te at Washington can command a sufficient naval he has strong distintion proclivities, that his as-means of national subsistence, will be cut off.

Well, it is to be hoped that starvation, if nothing else, will restore them to their senses. But why can't they make up their minds to be sensible upon full stomachs?

The War Spirit.—It is painful, says the Journal of Commerce, to witness the war spirit now rife throughout the country. At the rate things go on, the country ln less than the spirit now require.

The war spirit now rife throughout the country. At the rate things go on, the country ln less than the recessities of the State may require.

The florida only to be drawn and expended as the necessities of the State may require.

The florida only to be drawn and expended as the necessities of the State may require.

er banks specified verbally the same conditions. revitable. We are fast becoming a nation of posed, did not at all suit the views of Governor ation of duty to ourselves, to our families, to evitable. We are fast becoming a nation of posed, did not at all suit the riews of covering at ion of duty to conserve, to continue the riems of covering at ion of duty to conserve, and to God, requires us to act not all the built the built in the municipal state. Justifies towards foreigners, we indulge in the very reprehensible conduct of hating our own brethren and kinsmen. It is time for the prople to pause and ask themselves whither dellow-countrymen? Is it not possible for us joice at this result. If the Banks were to loan the armed neutrality or armed mediation of to differ decently and like men, without in-dulging in a spirit of malignity? Cannot men declaration that it should be used for the debe in favor of slavery or opposed to slavery fence of Kentucky, they would have no gnar. we deem the present indications entirely trust.

Gov. Magoffin and Senator Breckinrid may as well understand that they are not the war machines are not half so terrible as folks trol of the disbursement of the money. Our

John B. Major, the State printer, le Fraukfort on the lith inst., for Owen county, in the steamer Dove for the purpose of making extend his labor and his other means to the the friends of the Union in that quarter will friends be less devoted and resolute and dili-

We are afraid, that, if the Southern Con-

Why do the accessionists take such pain identify or confound the Administration term of any former Administration?

nnati, taking off their shoes, belabored each ther with them over the head. That was a

A San Antonio paper says, that, ln a "the savages were defeated." Which parts ancy that they are firing the Southern heart or she can catch him and by him, the result be sent to onists want peace. We always thought they brook-a shallow, babbling, noisy brook,

& We cannot call attention to all the matnent are following each other all over the to avert this ewful state of things, but that stormy sea. The whole nation is in fearful cannot mitigate the deep grief we feel at the mmotion. What is now occurring every- thought that the best bopes of our country and where around us will be regarded by coming the best bopes of mankind are so be blasted by minion upon the black and raging gulf of secession. Let those who would appreciate the stupendous folly and share of this act read ton that concerns us, that concerns the sation, that concerns the sation, that concerns our race, is, not what has been that the South is most in last would be wread as mortally wounded. Parties of half frantic people are in the street are closed. Business is supposeded, Geo. W. Summers in the Convention which we publish to-day. In the broad and lucid elequence of one of the greatest of Virginia's contemporary, what are we n do? What elequence of one of the greatest of virginia a contemporary, what are the great obligations growing out of the outer dept. The Pressions of the outer dept. The Pressions of the outer dept. The Pressions of the outer dept. the most unhappy circumstances that our-round us? The roar of cannon in the harbor round us? The roar of cannon in the harbor of the mob; the Virginians made arrangements in this contest necessarily alter our position or names. no finding that the authorities of that city and if Portsmonth, to defeat the designs of the likely to be in favor of one as the other—just never.

The Governor said ha abould how to the decree them to have the obstructions removed.

Capt. I'endergrast, like Col. Anderson, is a persuade ourselves of the peculiar holiness of the collection of the revenues cannot

We trust that we need not repeat the as-We trust that we need not repeat the ascivil war as the most horrible calamisty that can befull a nation, to make their veice heard he impolicy of the leaning of a large sum of in tones loud enough to drown the thunder of Governor's integrity. We regard him as an lessness, or with the reflection that our countrylessness, or with the reflection that our countrymen who have sown the wind are reaping the can be believe that possible profit can accrue to either side from an appeal to arms. It is not possible for seven Washington States to conquer the remaining twenty-seven, and the declaration of war is nor likely to give to embark in a doubtful speculation will be mediately. the Administration to conquer the Confeder-

The belligerents had better make neare now man had a brace of revolvers in addition to the than when both, after the shock of a great ie of the State may require.

VIRGIL McKNIGHT, President.

battle, or of a hundred great battles, shall lie

Lient, Jones, late We understand that one or more of the oth- side by side upon the earth, bleeding and exhausted. And as for us of Kentucky and Those conditions, however, as may well be sup-terms rejected by him. Much as we desire to tucky will be raised, with a manimity never have the State armed in a proper way, we re- witnessed before in our history, in favor of vening the Legislature on the 20th of this that of ARMED MEDIATION between the com

terior of Kentucky, declaring that we must named Matthew Adams, who lives in Indiana arge majority in Kentucky, but, nnless they glory restored.

linor Botts has been arrested as a traitor at rest might be avenged upon thousands of their | is cortain that the will find the meely a suddenly and nnexpectedly shorn of their strength, bound hand and foot.

spirit of wild anarchy and revolution is to run

a mighty spirit, but the spirit of Union, of lov-

We do wonder who can have sent such a alty, of patriotism, is a far mightier one.

John Young Brown, the eloquent Union Record showed that he was exactly the man to The mere apprehension of Virginia

Fail not to read the stirring and patric

ust "lie low" or be laid low.

Any such whisper must have been breath-

There is no longer any use in speculating as to the causes that have brought about the grina Convention has launched the Old Dominion upon the black and raging gulf of seconds.

There is no longer any use in speculating as to the causes that have brought about the ground convention has launched the Old Dominion upon the black and raging gulf of seconds.

To prove that the North is most in fault or that the South is most in fault or the south is mo

Une thousand Rhode Islanders, under Gov. On the other hand, it is equally impossible for the Administration to conquer the Confeder with people as they need they was thronged to be a second to be a se

The fealing here are the Statesman's to say that the Statesman's weeken the Statesman's weeken the Statesman's addendam is univers. There isn't a defendam is univers. There isn't a states are the states are the Statesman's to say that the Statesman's to say the Statesman's the Statesman's the Statesman's to say the Statesman's the Statesman's to say the Statesman's th

Mr. H. W. Bruce, in response to a call, add

Our young friend Bruce, in this conclu sency in politics. The hornbook must have it is not true. If the President had notified ciency in politics. The hornbook must have the Southern authorities that he would reintaught him, though he apparently has forgot force Sumpter at all hazards, the authorities even the largest acceptation of the phrase, is a state of revolt against the existing govern-not revolted against the government. Dis-The Conrier, feeling itself hard pressed npor ubedience is not revolution; if it were, no social fabric under heaven would stand up from an anonymous letter to the New York a dismembered Union.

President's Proclamation:
THE PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION.

A PROCLAMATION.

By the President of the United States:

By the President, WM, tl. SEWARD, Sec'y State.

I am shocked that a journal as olde and horrid and unprovoked war. It has kindled a all their clerks being drawn off to the army. stroy their own interests?

e to think that they are now in "a state of will condomn the Government of the "Conedifice apon a rock. They'll do well if they relation" by their own consent, in order to federate States" for the bloody inauguration of don't run their ship of State upon a rock; and into "a state of rev. apprehend that it is far otherwise. The probarest easy on this point, Kentneky, in this as long as there is a plank of the old ship of Crockett.

were not Yankee enough to publish your old abolition articles, and so you had to send them off to be published in Cassius M. Clay's aboutces and most unworthy task who seek to convince Kentacky not only that she is "in a state of revolution", but that she has "stept in no far", that, should she wide no more.

Returning were as tastiona as go o'er.

They wage a bootless task, and might as well resign it.

A young damael, on presenting a flag to e Sullivan Greys, said she could not express is any way to prevent the Southern publisher.

is ever stealing from the many, &c." In that respect it is like Ex-Secretary Floyd. He and the Liverpool merchants sell iron fetters for the nse of the slave dealers.

The slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers are the slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave dealers.

The slave dealers are the slave d ton Confederacy?" No doubt the Confederacy w every where up to 36 degrees, 30 minutes.

egiance how can you hope to hind them by have a bad way of showing it.

failed We guess they didn't miss much. The North West Times asks how we menace or provokes a general conflict, and as best comports with our safety, honor, and that case however we should hope that they did the banking institu and the South should both understand the fact

Gov. Floyd expresses a high opinion of evitable conclusion that a bloody collision is to the teachings of the sages and statesmen, graphic despatches. Events of mighty mo- reflection that we have done all in our power men here. Our the money upon the express cendition that it shall be used to place and keep and defend forebodings, though no one is able to give the

to maintain the honor of their honos. The maintain the honor of their country. The which is a remedy for nothing—war! war! After this dread arbitrament shall have been the maintain the successor defeat of either party.

**READ THE DESPATCHES.—After Trustyles—after the property of Charleston has not changed the nature of their honor. The maintain the honor of their country. The which is a remedy for nothing—war! war! war? After this dread arbitrament shall have been were killed on both sides, chiefly on the side.

**After this dread arbitrament shall have been were killed on both sides, chiefly on the side.**

**After this dread arbitrament shall have been were killed on both sides, chiefly on the side.** of the capacity of either section to do the most for the seizure of the Harper's Ferry Arsenal, affect the principles upon which we have acted ending to establish himself at Richmond. violent disunionists who are well known to expectly of entire section to do the most of the past, our harm, it must give place to peaceful diploma- and the United States troops set fire to and in stending aloof from the strife. Aside from cy; or total extermination of the belligerents ahandoned it; and Captain Pendergrast in the direct interposition of God, to whom both on one side or the other ensues. Why open command of the United States ships at Norfolk, sides appeal with equal fervor, the result of ories of victories, embalming the American the temple of Janus first? Why? Let men, no finding that the authorities of that city and one hattle or any number of bastles is just as they value pears, and are prepared to re-beive patriotic counsels, read the last great United States Government, had placed obstruc-of the people of Maryland. speech of Henry Clay, the concluding great tions in the river, thus shutting him in, turned maintenance of right. The worst designs of effort of his glorious life, given to restore his broadsides to both cities and compelled bad men are frequently concealed ander the peace and preserve his country from dismem- them to have the obstructions removed.

> nerce of the United States, of course the right a strict blockade of all the ports of the seced. ing States will not now be denied. Not a vesamon against that fort as containing rebels to the Union and Constitution which our fathers instituted, or that blood has been shed in curious to bring every downward boat to and seize any munitions of war that might be the rate things go on, the country ln less than thirty days will be ripe for a bloody contest; ident Davis may think or wish, war will be overnment according to their deserts, It had been no act of aggression or attempted elapsed forty days and nights of Lincoln's rale, time enough for the deluge to drown out to the inauguration of Lincoln showed more called down the vengeance of Heaven upon lived them, and if now a collision has been pro-States into their toils, we say to Kentucky and months past, stand firm and do not act rashly. s observe carefully who follows it up with comptly and shundantly for the support of a ney of the North, but its spirit is inclored itable. Its men may be physically crushed, spare themselves and each other all the nnut-

J. WOOD WILSON. AttorneyatLaw, WILL PRA TICEBLAW IN ALL TRE COURTS held in the city of Louisvain. Office Jednama and Published near New York N

J. WOOD WILSON.

NEXT OF KIN WANTED.

WM. SUMNER & CO., WHEELER & WILSON'S FamilySewing Machine NO 3 MARONIC TEM.

THE CREAT SOUTHERING WESTERN REMEDY.

Dr. MERWIN'S

FEVER & AGUE PILLS.

POTTER & MERWIN, Solo Proprietors,

Said in Louisville by EAYMOND & TYLER and all viggets overywhere, and and honor Abdronoville.

KNOW THYSELF.

CINCINNATI April 18.

DANNURY, CONN., April 18.
The Directors of the Pahquioque Bank to-day manimously voted to tender to the Governor See T. T. D. April 1.

Annual formula for the start of th

To the Editors of the Louisville Jour

Gen. Runyon has received orders for NEWARK, N. J., April 20.

BALTIMORE, April 20.

NASHVILLE, April 18.

The state of the control of the cont

MONTGOMERY, April 19

A Rhoda Islander and an old citizen of this place issued an order this morning to uniform and equip at his own expense 80 volunteers to go to Washington. The company has been organized and will be ready to march in teach.

FALMOUTH, KT., April 20,
A balloon was seen passing at e bigh elevation over Feimouth, going east-south-east, at 5½ o'clock this morning.

Bosron, April 20,
This city was terribly axcited last night and

CARTER & BUCHANAN, Garden and Grass Seeds, AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS READ THE EVIDENCE!

or rate by KAYMOND & TYLER.

LYON'S KATHAIRON, FIELD AND GRASS SEEDS. For the Hair! For the Hair!

HAIR DYE! HAIR DYE!

WOL A. BATCHELOR'S HAIR DYE. The only Barmless and Reliable Dye Known!

See Dr. McCann'a edvertisement of Know

MURRELL & BOWLES, Commission Merchants, Now Orleans.

LOUISVILLE CATTLE MARKET.

$100 REWARD.

Recripts.

RECLE—W. J. Cummine, Anderson count., & J. N.
Johnson, Henry country, & J. Mitchell. Jefferson country, & J. P. Howard, do do, by John Talbott Meade country, & E. Meble, Nelson count, 2: P. Meble, de do, & John Johnson, do do, b: James Little,
Spencer country, K-reliceky, 2 M. Henley & Son.

Spencer country, K-reliceky, 3 M. Henley & Son.

Spencer country, K-reliceky, 3 M. Henley & Son.

Spencer country, K-reliceky, 3 M. Henley & Son.

W. M. HOLMAN,

MY. HOLMAN,

MY. HOLMAN, na do, t: John Johnson, do s. 1: Same Laters, Spencer county, & T. Hoffern, Floyd county, 10; B.
S. Holmes, Jackson county, 9: H. Amis, Jackson county, 9: J. Braxton, Ornang county, 10; John Houlday, Scott county, 21; J. Sureham, Washington county, 10; John Rodman, do do, 26; B. Chase, do do, Indiana, 8. Rodman, do do, 26; B. Chase, do do, Indiana, 8. WM LIAGO

Boone Tobacco Warehouse,

A Chance for Toxas Emigrants.

Dogs, Kabbits, & Francy

New formstand Dogs, English Pril bers, Madegacar and ornamos Enejob Kabbats, (flack spanlamburg, Polanda and Enr varieties of Santan Powls, three of Gravar, the of Turkey, &c. Seed for circuity

Citans, the of Turkey, &c. Seed for circuity Dogs, Rabbits, & Fancy Poultry.

importers of Guns & Fishing Tackle

BANK NOTICE. The annual election of this institution and Branches wi

PERPARE FOR SUNNER! SAVE TOUR ICE! E.W. MACDONALD,

GALVANISED IRON REFRIGERATORS ICE CHESTS,

WATER-COOLERS, No. 49 Fourth st., DR Mrs this transferd to defect to a cortainty man true condition and locality of disease, by a simple and count for motival, without selting the policed any BETWEEN MAIN AND THE RIVER LOUISVILLE, KY.

MUNN & CO.'S Southwestern Agricultural Works,

MANUFACTURERS

JOSEPH GRIFFIPTH,

CHILDREN

MRS. WINSLOW,

LOUISVILLE

Private Medical Dispensary Conducted on the European Plan,

LTEETHING

Also Dealers in VERY KIND OF AGRICULTURAL IMPLIMINATE THE BARLY PHYSICAL DEGENERACT SALE-ROOM, No. 217 Main street, Between Second and Third streets. 124 Th@McEwlam MUNN & CO. A LARGE AND CIT ICS SELECTION OF FRIEND AND GENUINE HOME-GROWN

Garden Seeds, J. D. BONDURANT, Seed and Agricultural Warehouse, Fishing Tackle! Fishing Tackle! Guns, Rifles, Pistols.

Soothing Syrup TO FEMALES.

The Park of the pa

they should be received with great causion. It first-cotton can be ferraished for lower price than common cotton, and if it will answer a similar purpose equally well, it has only to be brought to the market for sale, when it will be sure to find plenty of purchasers.

A correspondent writing to us from Spring-Beld, Mass., on flor-cotton, takes a practical visus of the subject. He says "As the strength of fabrico composed of flax is due almost entartly so the argust length of each fibre, what at the advantage of subjecting it to a very expensive process to cottoniae it by shortening the fibre, thereby reducing its strength It is true flore, the strength It is true flore, thereby reducing its strength It is true flore, the flore of their wearers, and thinking the cost of the reducing the strength It is true flore, the flore of the reducing the reducing the flore of the r

The bark Manhattan, which arrived here the morning from Savannah, had a secession finisted A crowd proceeded to the wharf at monnelled Captain lawle to take it down at out the Stars and Stripes.

MONTGOMERY, April 15.
Vice President Stephens has arrived. It is a hat Virginia will unlie with the Confederac resident Davis will vacate his seat at Montgor ry (the Vice President assuming his duties) ar ill make his head quarters at Kichmond with en days, with Beauregard es second in commen length R. on take and Person description.

USEPUL AS WELL AS ORNAMENTAL

WM. KENDRICK'S. 125 Third st., between Main and Market.

WATCHYS My rock of JEWELRY SILVER and PLATED WARS Was never more complete than at present, and is offere on as fair terms as can be procured in the city. Cal and see MANY NEW TRINGS. distance.

CHRISTMAS & NEW YEAR'S GIFTS! FLETCHER & BENNETT, MAIN STEEET, BET. FOURTH AND FIFTH,

Dr. WM. PRICE.

I had Fishula for filteen years, with alx openings, and was cured by Dr. Price in three weeks RILLY WILLIAMS.

Office on Market, between Slath and Seventh ste.
Address, enclosing a poetaga stamp, Louisville, Ky.
fe-bib ddw

DAHLIA ROOTS.

Rhode Island troops to Washington.

TREMTON, X. J. April 16.
The Governor has ordered the millbery to the arsenal, being apprehensive of an attempt to carry sway the arms there.

An ettack on the True American is feared, because the office does not display the American flag.

Michiertra, April 16.
The Memphis and Ohlo railroad offers to transport troops and munitions free. The Connell appointed e Milltary Board, and eppropriated $50,000 for the defence of the city. The Union flags on the steamers are builed down. The citizens are arming end columnering.

Washington, April 16.

Recruiting offices were opened to-night. A large number enrolled.

BALTHORN, April 16,
Governor Hicks thinks that Maryland should melintsin the same position es hitherto; that sha should protect the Federal Capital and Government, and stand by the Constitution and the Union. Enlistments are rapidly progressing.

Millard Fillmore made e strong Union speech this evening—saying that we must all stand by Millard Fillmore made with the same by Mills of the president of the carnestly niged that Legi-lature to, without daisy, confer on the President.

Millard Fillmore made e strong Union speech this evening—saying that we must all stand by

READ THE RECORD.

At the various military renderous volunteer are enlisting rapidly, especially among the German population.

ours, Bespectfilly, W. SYDNEY MYERS,

ALSO-

UNHEALTHY CITIES, SICKLY CLIMATER.

I had a pegro man with Fistula, and he was cured by Dr. Price in three works.

RADWAT'S RENOVATING RESOL-

$100 Per Month Made with $10.

R.R.R.

DR. RADWAY'S REMEDIES. THE TRUE MEANS TO PRESERVE AND RECOVER HEALTH. LET THE SICK READ AND REFLECT.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF. RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS. BADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT. SECURE HEALTH TO ALL, AND ARE Pased as providential specifics by the

"MAGNA EST VERITAS ET PRÆVALIBIT."

Raduay's Ready Ra-lief. The Minute Mydicine. Rad wav's Ready Re-lief Frevata Sich-nesa. Rad way's Ready Re-lief Stope Pain in a Minute. Rad way's Ready Re-lief in a Pineanni Field in a Pineanni Rad way's Ready Re-flef cure Pains in the Roweiy.

THE PUREST AND BEST PURGATIVE PILL IN

THE SIGNAL OF WOE, SIX HOURS, BY RADWAY'S BEGULATING PILLS, RADWAY'S BEADY RELIEF.

RADWAT'S READY RELIEF.
SICK HEADACHE,
MENTAL HEADACHE,
NERYOUS HEADACHE,
MALARIOUS HEADACHE,
GUNGESTIVE HEADACHE, CATARRI HEADACHE,
HEADACHE FROM FEVERS,
HEADACHE FROM TENTHING ADACHE FROM FEVERS, HEADACHE FROM SUDDEN COLDS,

BADWAY'S READY BELIEF, and CURED IN SIX HOURS,

BY RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS.

HEADACHE infections, epidemic, and main observes this must be kind, lut the malarizon, contagious, and infections for vers—in Yellow, TYPHUS, TYPHOID, SCARLET, SHIP FEVER—in LUNG PEVER, PNEUMONIA MEASLES, SMALL POX— IN FEVER AGUE.

harres Fever, March Fever—in all Remittent an Intermittent Fevers—in Billona, Nervous, and Eheu matle Fevers—in Indicenza, Sore Threat, Suddee Colds, in Dighteria, in Indammations, Congestions and Convulsions. HEADACHE, READACHE, HEADACHE, wn the brain with pain, and transforms the i brain to hideous lumnity. In all these dis-orms of Headache. BADWAYS READY RELIEF,

RADWAY'S REGULATING PILLS,

Christmas and New Year's Presents

PROF. WOOD'S THE KENTUCKY CLIPPER

HAIR

THE ONLY ARTICLE

WORTHY

UNIVERSAL CONFIDENCE! AND THE ONLY ONE HAVING IMMENSE

HOME AND EUROPEAN DEMAND:

See what a distinguished St. Louis Physi-

JAMES WHITE, M. D.

$500 REWARD PROF. O. J. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE

CHARLES CARDEW, E NASSAU STREET, N. Y. A. C. RAYMOND, BATH, MAINE, POP CORN BALLS.

TO BE DRAWN AT PADUCAH, KY.,

MAY 1st, 1861. 1,000 PRIZES IN MONEY Only 5,000 Tickets!

For Tickets, Schemes or Agencies, ADDRESS BYERS & CLEMENTS, forius the KENTI : KY CLIPPER, we are confident that all the roun five for a .... t m

Price at the Factory $80 Cash. MILLER & MOORE, Manufacturers,

Price, Including Boubletrees, Neckyoke, &c., complete, $135. MANUFACTURED BY

COMBINED REAPER AND MOWER

MILLER & MOORE LOUISVILLE, KY. ESTABLISHED IN 1817.

....ARTHUR PETER..... WILSON, PETER, & CO., WHOLESALE DRUGGISTS

FOREIGN DRUGS AND CHEMICALS, AND DRALBES IN PAINTS, OILS, WINDOWGLASS, GLASSWARE, TOBACCO, NURVE, PREFERENT, & No. 416 Main Street, Louisville, Ky. Agents for the Louisville Chemical Works.

Edgehill School. PRINCETON, N. J.

Wheat Wanted

Burglars and Robbers

1,000 Library Association Company's